Have Cause to Be Proud. "Did you ever think of it — the Cherokees have three members of congress — Carter (more Cherokee than Chickasaw). Hastings and Cherokees have three memoers of congress — Carier (more Cherokee I han Chickasaw). Hastings and Chardler—and a United States real ator—R. L. Owen? Have we Cherokees occasion to be proud of our race—our congressman and sensior, with the orolability that the latter may loin Wilson's cubinet and in 1920 be the nominee of the Democratic party for president? Well, we are."

TRANSPACIFIC FREIGHT BUREAU Thirteen Steamship Companies Enter Into Combination,

(Correspondence of The Associated Press.) TOKIO, Oct. 20 .- Announcement is made here that 13 steamship companies which maintain lines on the Pacific ocean are about to organize a prompt delivery on all orders. | trans-Pacific freight bureau for the freight tariff. A trans-Pacific freight conference existed before the war, but it went out of existence at the outbreak of hostilities, due largely to the withdrawal of the Canadian Pacific steamers and the discontinuance of the Pacific Mail company.

The basis of the pending agreement is a desire to establish a fixed rate of transportation and to remove unneces-sary rivalry between steamship com-panies. If is declared that the new sary rivalry between steamship companies. It is declared that the new scale will be more important to buyers in the United States than to sellers in the far east, as the only effect on the latter, in case rates are raised, would be an increase in the prices of their goods. According to the press, the new charges will not apply to cargo experts from Japan. Korea, Manchuria and Formosa, and in order to check up merchants in China and other parts of the orient who are reshipping goods to the United States and Canada from the ports not affected, an investigato the United States and Canada from the ports not affected, an investiga-tion is now being made by a commit-tee of those who will sign the new tariff. The companies interested in the new agreement are said to include the Canadian Pacific, Pacific Mail, China Mail, Toyo Kisen, Kaisha, Osaka, Shosen Kaisha, Nippon Yusen Kaisha and other British companies.
